On July 24, local hockey players teamed up with Freedom 55 Financial to raise funds in support of cancer care in Northwestern Ontario. The results are in. The Freedom 55 Financial Thunder Bay Hockey Celebrity Golf Classic raised a record $38,000 for the Northern Cancer Fund of the Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Foundation. This brings the three-year total raised by the event to almost $90,000.

Tom Mihaljevic, event chair and Director, Business Development for Freedom 55 Financial, presented the cheque to Bridgette Parker, Senior Development Officer and Glenn Craig, President & CEO of the Health Sciences Foundation.

“We are so grateful to the volunteers, sponsors, participants and hockey celebrities for helping us make this year’s event another success,” Mihaljevic said. “Through the Freedom 55 Financial Thunder Bay Hockey Celebrity Golf Classic, we all helped make a difference in the lives of people with cancer in Northwestern Ontario.”

Glenn Craig, President & CEO of the Health Sciences Foundation, is impressed by the effort and dedication put forth by the event organizers and supporters. “The Freedom 55 Financial Thunder Bay Hockey Celebrity Golf Classic is one more great example of this community coming together to support excellence in cancer care in Northwestern Ontario.”

30 homegrown hockey stars participated in the Freedom 55 Financial Thunder Bay Hockey Celebrity Golf Classic in support of cancer care in our region. One hockey player joined each team of golfers for 18 holes at Whitewater Golf Course. The celebrity roster included Erik, Mark and Jordan Staal, Alex Auld, Mike Richards, Patrick Sharp, Taylor Pyatt and 23 others.
