New and familiar faces welcomed to Health Sciences Foundation Board

At the Annual General Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Foundation, new Directors were elected.

Vince Mirabelli, Realtor, is a long-time dedicated supporter of the Health Sciences Foundation. He has served as chair of the Save a Heart Ball committee for the past three years and volunteers in other capacities as well. "I know what it's like need healthcare," says Vince. I am pleased that, as a new member of the Health Sciences Foundation's Board of Directors I can play a larger role in ensuring that care is available for others when they need it most"

Returning to the Board is Mary Poulter, Chartered Accountant. Poulter served on the Board of Directors of the former Northern Cancer Research Foundation (NCRF). "I am very familiar with the NCRF's impact on cancer service in Northwestern Ontario. I look forward to working to advance all areas of care at our Health Sciences Centre," she says.

Ken Bittle, Chair of the Board, welcomes the new Directors. "Vince and Mary both offer specific and valuable skill sets to compliment the activities of the Board," he notes. "The people of Northwestern Ontario are well represented."

John Trevisanutto retired from the Board of Directors after almost seven years of service. Trevisanutto's volunteer work with the Foundation will continue as he provides significant support to several fundraising events and activities.

Bittle commends Trevisanutto for his ongoing dedication to healthcare in Northwestern Ontario. "John's efforts alone have raised significant funds for our Health Sciences Centre. His commitment is outstanding," he says.
